Personal Statement

I am a very polite, welcoming person. I am organised, caring and hard working, always on time. I have improved on my communication skills within my present job, which is needed in the beauty industry.

My goals are to start a long term career in the beauty industry. I have always preferred to work in a spa or health farm rather than a high street salon. Once within the beauty industry I would like to progress to a higher position.

Seeking work in South England, UK

Employment History:

May 2010 - Present - Checkout Assistant at (most recent employer hidden for confidentiality) Andover, UK - United Kingdom, (Product Company)

Duties included:

I interact with customers at the checkouts and also passing by. I adapt my skills to help with individual needs such as people with a disability or people from a different ethnic background. I offer my assistance to all customers and answer any queries. I have built up a rapport with some regular customers. I deal with money and have improved on my communication skills.

May 2010 - Present - Self Employed Beauty Therapist at Ministry Of Beauty, Salisbury, UK - United Kingdom, (Hair Salon)

Duties included:

I worked commission based at this salon whilst also self employed with my own mobile beauty treatment business. I have performed reception duties with a polite, welcoming manner, cleaning and tidying treatment and reception area. Checking stock and carrying out consultation forms for each individual client, with detailed aftercare. Dealing with client queries and questions, asking if they would like drinks, magazines etc. Ensuring client expectations are met. Making sure there are no hazards.

I am currently working self employed in my own business and ASDA part time but not in a salon.
