I enjoy working on my own initiative or in a team. In conclusion, I am reliable, trustworthy, and hardworking and eager to learn with a genuine interest in becoming employed.

KEY STRENGTHS

Good time management skills

I need good time management skills in order to survive while studying for my HNC, whilst working and completing other commitments.

Forward planning and ability to prioritise

My HND has a rigorous assignment schedule which means I have to plan ahead to ensure I have extra time, if required, to hand in the assignments on time.

Excellent organisational skills

My Complementary Therapy course involves practical activities. This involves negotiating with clients, liaising with colleagues, planning the therapies and organising the rooms.
