Personal Statement

I have excellent customer care; I am competent in my skills, and can deliver a professional treatment. I am confident and ambitious, and enjoy what I am passionate about. I am willing to travel and expand my knowledge to deliver more therapeutic treatments. I am a quick learner, flexible and enjoy working part of a team. I am reliable and have a friendly nature. I have been part of the Learner Voice Cafe in 2011 and also the Student Representative for Beauty Therapy during 2011 and 2012. I am registered with Federation of Holistic Therapies—FHT. I was Therapist of the Year in 2010/11 for Level 3 in Complementary Therapies and had been nominated for another 3 award for my Level 2 in Beauty Therapy for 2011/2012 winning Dermalogica Sales' Person of the Year.

I participated in the VCTC World Skills 2011 for Aromatherapy. I have travelled and worked in America during 1997 working for Camp Harlam a Jewish camp in Pennsylvania providing the finest in recreational and educational activities for Reform Jewish youth. I worked for 10 weeks then travelled with friends and then explored other parts of the USA alone which was a life experience which I will always treasure.

Hobbies and Interests

I have many interests including, cooking, reading, meditation, swimming and yoga. I enjoy dance, socialising and travelling. I also like using alternative therapies and remedies like Ayurvedic together with crystals. I like to read about scriptures and history.

I am part of our Local Hindu Community, where we organise events and partake in activities. I also work with other therapists, family and friends in charitable events and raising monies for schools and pamper ladies nights. I enjoy working with different cultures of life and am keen to broaden my horizons.

I do some voluntary work for Holidays with Help a formed group of British Red Cross Society who organises holidays for large groups of people with disabilities every year. I am part of the BeautyCare. I have together with my sister raised over £1,500 for the NewLife Foundation for disabled children - which allowed them to purchase equipment for two children.
