Personal Statement

I have been in the Beauty Industry for over 12 years in various roles, I have gained a wealth of experience from working as a therapist to manager to a trainer as well as running my own business. My most recent role was the cruise line where i went back to being a therapist which was challenging but very rewarding it reminded me why i went into Beauty in the first place, helping my guest to feel amazing and recharged,

I am outgoing warm, friendly and easy approachable. I Love to teach therapies and helping students to be excited and confident about the brand they are learning. I work well as part of a team as well as on my own initiative. I am reliable and hard working, I enjoy setting targets and achieving them, helping to motivate staff and creating an excellent working environment.

I feel with my years of experience it has made me an excellent leader as i am firm but fair and very hard working myself.
