Duties included:

As a sales manager, my main duties included leading a team of sales representatives, setting sales targets, and developing strategies to achieve them. I also conducted market research, analyzed sales data, and implemented promotional activities to drive sales growth. In addition to these responsibilities, I was also involved in inventory management, stock taking, and monitoring product availability to ensure customer satisfaction.

In my role as a hairdresser, my main duties involved providing cutting-edge hair services, including hairstyling and hair coloring. I also managed client appointments, maintained the salon's schedule, and handled cash transactions. In addition to these tasks, I was responsible for inventory management, ordering supplies, and keeping track of expenses to ensure profitability. I also created and managed staff rota schedules to ensure adequate coverage during peak times.

Overall, I have experience in a wide range of responsibilities in both sales management and hairdressing, including stock taking, budgeting, hairstyling, hair coloring, and staff management. This diverse skill set allows me to handle multiple tasks efficiently and effectively in a fast-paced environment.
