Personal Statement

, I am a person who adapts very quickly to a new environment (I have been traveling to different countries since I was a child and I have been able to work in different countries too). My last job was in the best luxury salon in Paris, I was able to work with important clients so I know how to handle difficult requests and moods from clients. I am someone who is always evolving and improving (this is what I like about hairdressing, we learn new techniques all our lives)
