Personal Statement

Warm greetings from Namibia!☺☺

I'm a passionate and intuitive massage therapist with international training and a heart for healing. I create safe, calming spaces where clients can truly relax - physically, emotionally, and energetically. My approach blends therapeutic techniques with a holistic touch, focusing on personalized care, emotional well-being, and restoring balance. Whether I'm working in a spa, on a cruise ship, or in a home-based setup, I bring professionalism, compassion, and a grounded presence to every session.

Employment History:

January 2025 - Present - Massage Therapist at (most recent employer hidden for confidentiality) Rundu, Namibia, (Home/Mobile)

Duties included:

As a self-employed massage therapist, I provide a variety of treatments, such as Swedish massage, aromatherapy, and reflexology, while ensuring client satisfaction and comfort. In addition to performing treatments, I manage all aspects of the business, including client bookings, invoicing, and maintaining treatment supplies. My additional responsibilities include stock management, inventory checks, and ordering products, as well as overseeing the cleanliness and organization of the space. I also handle marketing and promotional activities for the business. I gained similar experience in my previous job and during college, where I was responsible for stock taking, managing bookings, and maintaining a professional environment. This was excellent practice for developing a well-rounded skill set in both treatment and business operations

Products worked with:

Salon care

Essential Oils (for customized aromatherapy blends based on chakras)

Coconut oil, Almond oil, Hazelnut oil, Grapeseed oil

Kayolin clay

Hemp seed masks

Hot stones

June 2024 - December 2024 - Massage Therapist at The Comfort Corner (self employed in a rented space), Windhoek, Namibia, (Day Spa)

Duties included:

- Developed and delivered customized wellness experiences rooted in chakra therapy, lymphatic drainage, aromatherapy and more.
- Managed daily spa operations including my own bookings, client relations, treatment design and product detail.
- As it was a shared space with other therapists, always ensured the reception area and treatment room area was left clean.

Products worked with:

- Aromatherapy essential oils
- Different kinds of base oils based on clients needs; almond oil, grapeseed oil, hazelnut oil and much more
- Sold Avon body/face products for extra commission
- Kayolin clay
- Hot stones
- Different hair oils; Amla oil, agran oil, coconut oil and more

October 2022 - September 2023 - Massage Therapist at Oukelele Day Spa, Windhoek, Namibia, (Hotel Spa)

Duties included:

- Provided professional massage therapy tailored to relaxation and muscle relief
- Maintained a high standard of hygiene and treatment ambiance
- Handled consistent back-to-back bookings whilst ensuring each client received personalised care
