Personal Statement

I love making people feel good: this is my drive and my passion. I do that through an holistic approach, especially through yoga and meditation. The best feeling for me is when students tell me how well they feel after having a session with me, or how they are solving their physical or mental problems thanks to my classes.

My best quality is a positive approach and problem solving mind. I do not let obstacles stop me, and I love encouraging people to do the same.

I am reliable, always on time and always ready to share my knowledge and expertise. My passion for what I do shines through every day.

My goal is to work in a beautiful place (SPA, hotel, health club) where I can build a good rapport with my students and build a community, sharing knowledge and health through yoga, meditation, reiki, pilates, fitness and principles of ayurveda.
