Hobbies and Interests

I love drama and anything arts related. I am currently a student at Questors academy enrolled in a 2 year drama course after admission gained upon audition. The course sees me interacting and working constantly with fellow actors, this consequently enhanced my communication, organizing and team work skills.

Modeled for David Horne make up artist and Director of the Illamasqua School of Make up Art for a project called "The art of male makeup" published in a book and consequently presented to IMATS(International make up artist trade show)
