Personal Statement

There are three key factors about me that make me the right candidate for a job. These three factors are; my work skills, my enthusiasm towards others and my attitude. I'd like to think I'm highly enthusiastic and because of this I get along with new people very well and I confidently demonstrate my communication skills.

I strive on keeping myself busy and dedicating myself in order to succeed. Whether I am working or not I like to meet new people and get to know more about others. When it comes to work, I put on a 'just go for it' and a 'can-do' attitude as soon as my shift starts. I feel this is important and handy because I can work confidently, independently and with a team by transforming myself in to these two attitudes.

For me it is important to make people feel at ease with you by being friendly. I like to adopt that friendliness so that I am approachable to customers and fellow employees so that I get along with my colleagues very well. I take pride in making an effective difference by helping others and completing work to the up most satisfactory standard.

Finally, I have many years of working experience in numerous sectors and I am dedicated to everything that I do in life, including my working lifestyle. I focus on what is expected of me and try to exceed these expectations by going the extra mile whenever needed.

In a few years time I hope to have my own beauty business and become an Event Designer.
