Personal Statement

As a beauty therapist I am mainly concerned with improving the client's appearance. I am responsible of making my clients feel good about them. The key to become a successful beauty therapist is having passion for this fantastic art form. I started with a little knowledge in this subject, but my hunger to develop myself further through training and work experience will be paid of a lot of dividends. The qualifications that I have provided me with the skills and the knowledge to carry out beauty treatments to a high professional standard and prepare me for work within the industry. I have developed understanding of the business of retail, the retail selling process, maintaining health, safety and security, customer service, visual merchandising, retail consumer law, security and loss prevention. I am also provided with the skills to work individually and in a team to improve the effectiveness of a retail business. .i have also developed an understanding of the retail of skincare products as part of this qualification. Continuing with the studies I would like to be seccssesful in my work , Open to learn new treatments, and developing my self into the beauty industry

Seeking work in international locations
