Personal Statement

I would describe myself as someone who is passionate about beauty and aesthetic. I gained a lot of experience working as sale representative in beauty and aesthetics company in Slovakia, though working with International brands. Process of training and teaching is for me natural, just like performing various beauty treatments. Thanks to my high school business orientation, and my sales background, I love to sell the products I believe in. For me is very important, that my clients are happy with service or product I am offering.

I am strong in planning and organisation, as communication with my clients.

I am seeking work in beauty/ aesthetics department as sales representative. I am driven by achieving good feedback, performances targets, learning new skills, being creative, flexible and organized.
