Personal Statement

I am not a certified massage therapist due to a financial issue, but I love this job the first day my friend introduced me to it. Since then, though the opportunity for being a male therapist in India is not that great. I stick to it, hoping to get a chance to work abroad and be certified. I have been in the profession for close to 4 years now but I still thrive to improve myself by looking new technique online. Out of a 100 jobs that my current company(which is, UrbanClap) gave me. I have received 42 ratings, out of which 39 client gave me Excellent(5*) and 3 Good (4.5 *), putting my overall rating at 4.96 out of 5. I worked hard and try my best at handling client, be it at a massage or by communicating.
