I am a highly motivated and committed individual. I am passionate about health and beauty and how I can apply my passion to help others such as my customers and clients. I am proactive in researching products and techniques new to the field and applying them to my practice.

My work experience to date has allowed me to develop my customer service and leadership skills and I thoroughly enjoy interacting with people from all aspects of my work. My 9 years running my business proves I am able to work independently and under my own initiative, while maintaining my own targets and financial responsibility. I care greatly about keeping up to date training and offering the very best to my clients and I believe this is a vital asset.

In my own time I enjoy socialising with my friends, going to the gym to keep fit and walking my dog.

I also enjoy looking up new and upcoming beauty products as this is my hobby as well as my passion.
