Duties included:

Aug 2012 - Sept 2019 | Crew a la Mode - The Yacht Clothing and Lifestyle Agency | Studio & Senior Project & Account Manager (2016 - 2019 Palma de Mallorca-based)

- After locating a suitable property for our studio, I project managed its renovation work to reflect the style and ethos of the companies London flagship studio.

- I was solely responsible for all legal and accounting matters in relation to the company's Spanish registration and liaised with our lawyer and accountant on a monthly basis to ensure all matters were covered. I assisted old and new clients with all uniform and design needs whilst working within their set budgets and strict time frames. I was in charge of approving all quotes and invoices before being sent on and ensured the studio was presentable for all client meetings on a daily basis.
- I created marketing and advertising strategies to gain new business as well as creating social media content.
- I headed our overseas business development and created strategies and plans for other international studios whilst researching the benefits and drawbacks of international growth.
- I represented the company at all major international trade shows and held client meetings throughout Europe. I was responsible for all logistics regarding the setting up and dismantling of trade show stands and after each show I'd created reports summarising any business done, supplier needs, areas that worked and what areas needed improvements.
- Being part of the company's senior management team we had monthly meetings to discuss ideas of where improvements in the running of the business could be made.

Aug 2012 - Sept 2019 | Crew a la Mode - The Yacht Clothing and Lifestyle Agency | Studio Manager (2012 - 2016 London-based)

- Responsible for the smooth running of the studio on a daily basis by directing and assisting my 10 colleagues with any questions or issues they encountered. I took charge of the company's interviewing process for new interns and employees as well as being responsible for the companies HR and first aid.
- I was in charge of the company's bookkeeping, quote approval, invoice payments and liaised with our accountant at month end.
- I put together both the men's and ladies stock rooms and quality controlled and documented all stock deliveries. I also assisted the 'Head of Production' with design solutions and artwork for our in house clothing brand.
- In 2015 we relocated to east London. During this process I organised the logistics of moving the entire studio whilst dealing with the renovation work at the new studio.
